

Godolphin

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER, GODOLPHIN IRELAND LIMITED

Godolphin Ireland Limited is recruiting for the role of Chief Financial Officer. This role requires a seasoned financial leader capable of driving the company's financial strategy, ensuring compliance and providing valuable insights to support decision-making at the highest level of the County Kildare-based company. As Chief Financial Officer the appointed candidate will ensure alignment with business objectives and regulatory compliance.

Godolphin Ireland is headquartered at Kildangan Stud in Monasterevin, County Kildare and has operations in five Kildare locations, plus two in Tipperary and one in Meath. The company is part of the Godolphin group – a leading global thoroughbred racing and breeding operation with bases in the UK, France, Australia, Japan, USA and United Arab Emirates.

This is an opportunity to work for a company which epitomises excellence in its practices and achievements. The CFO will be expected to bring a combination of enthusiasm and expertise to the local senior management team and to work productively with an international team of colleagues.
